Qualification and Privileges – The qualifications and privileges for the various categories of membership shall be as follows.

A. Active Member: An active member maintains membership in both AADE National and DEEM. It may be a health care professional member or a student who is someone providing patient education; or education for health care providers on diabetes and its related disorders. They shall have all privileges of membership including the right to vote and make nominations. Student and corporate employees are not able to hold elected office for the Board of Directors or chair the Program and Bylaws committee. If chairing a committee a corporate member must sign a conflict of interest statement.

B. Associate Member: is a Non AADE Member, with an interest or involvement in DEEM (healthcare professional, Corporate Member, Corporate Partner, student)

The Associate Member shall have the privilege of voting and making nominations on the local level. Student and corporate employees are not able to hold elected office for the Board of Directors or chair the Program and Bylaws committee.

If chairing a committee a corporate member must sign a conflict of interest statement.

C. Honorary Membership: may be awarded by the Board of Directors to an individual in recognition of outstanding service to the DEEM organization. Stipulation may be noted that if such a person is an existing member of DEEM, they would be due all the benefits of DEEM membership, but they are not required to pay dues. If not a member, the award is for recognition of service.
